

KATHMANDU AIRLINES

User Manual

Contents

Home Panel .....	2
Table Panel .....	3
Add Panel.....	4
Inserting values in table.....	5
Opening file .....	5

Home Panel

1. Open File: The open file menu allows the user to open an existing file.
2. Exit: The exit menu will terminate the whole program.
3. View Table button: When the user clicks this button, it will switch to another window where table is created.
4. Add Value button: This button will switch to the add window where users can add data to the table.

1. Search button: This button allows the user to search the available flight of a certain company.
2. Search option: The search option consists of the company names that a user must select to search available flights.
3. Sort option: The sort option allows user option allows the user to sort table according to the price and company.
4. Text field: This text field allows the user to enter search value.
5. Search Flight button: The search flight button search flights based on the input value.
6. Add Value button: This button helps the user to switch to the add panel.
7. Delete button: This button deletes the selected row from the above table.

Add Panel

The screenshot shows a web application window titled "Airlines Information System" with a menu bar containing "File" and "Help". The main content area has a teal background and is titled "Kathmandu Airlines". It contains the following elements:

- 1: Flight ID text input field.
- 2: Company dropdown menu, currently showing "Qatar Airways".
- 3: Category radio buttons for "Domestic" and "International".
- 4: Price text input field.
- 5: Status radio buttons for "Available" and "Not Available".
- 6: Update text input field, labeled "Flight ID".
- 7: Update button.
- 8: Flight Route text input field.
- 9: Number of Seats text input field.
- 10: Add button.
- 11: View Table button.
- 12: Clear button.

Below the Update text input field, there is a note: "* Enter the Flight ID of the row you wish to update."

- 1. Flight ID text-field: This text-field takes flight ID as an input, and it only allows alphabets and numbers.
- 2. Company option: The company option is a combo box that consist of company names, and it allow the user to select any one company.
- 3. Category option: The category option is a radio button that consist of two options, and it allows user to select only one option.
- 4. Price text-field: This text-field takes price as an input, and it allows user to enter numbers only.
- 5. Status option: The status option is a radio button that consist of two options, and it allows user to select only one option.
- 6. Update text-field: This text field allows the user to enter any flight id that is registered in the table.
- 7. Update button: The update button updates the data in the table of an entered flight id.
- 8. Flight Route text-field: This text-field takes the flight route as an input, and it only allow the user to enter alphabet and hyphen'-'.

9. Seats text-field: The seat text-field takes the number of seats available in a flight as an input and it only allows numbers.
10. Add button: When a user clicks the add button it takes the input from the above text-fields, radio buttons and combo box and add those data to the table.
11. View Table button: This button allows the user to switch to the table panel.
12. Clear button: When a user clicks this button, it clears the input data from all the text-fields.

Inserting values in table

1. Open Add panel tab.
2. Insert values in the text field. Make sure none of field is left empty (except update).
3. Choose company name from drop down menu and category and status from buttons.
4. Then click Add button.
5. Check data in table by clicking View Table button.

Opening file

1. Open Table panel from home page or add panel page.
2. Click on File from the menu.
3. Click sub menu Open file or use shortcut key Ctrl + O.
4. Data from the file will be added to the table.